America's Largest Free Outdoor Concert Series Is Back

400+ free Levitt concerts rebuilding community life, one concert, and one city, at a time

June 24, 2015—This summer, the power of free, live music to strengthen the social fabric of our communities is on radiant display, with more than 400+ free Levitt concerts across the country. These shows bring people together of all ages and backgrounds in beautiful green settings for the shared experience of free music under the stars. Levitt Pavilions, the national nonprofit behind America's largest free outdoor concert series, has awarded more than $1.5 million in grants in 2015, in partnership with the Mortimer & Mimi Levitt Foundation, to support free concerts in 16 towns and cities. These include six signature Levitt locations with permanent, state-of-the-art outdoor music venues, and 10 Levitt AMP sites that were selected following a grant competition with online public voting.

Levitt concerts feature GRAMMY-winning artists and acclaimed, emerging talent in a wide array of music genres, including rock, blues, soul, country, jazz, world, Latin, children's and more. Levitt's welcoming and family-friendly atmosphere ensures access to high caliber, live music experiences open to all. Beyond the free concerts, Levitt locations share a mission to reinvigorate once-neglected public spaces, creating vibrant citywide destinations. "Each Levitt location is a unique reflection of its city and celebrates community pride," says philanthropist Liz Levitt Hirsch, board chair of Levitt Pavilions and president of the Mortimer & Mimi Levitt Foundation. "It's amazing to see people across the United States come together through music."

Below are just some of the highlights of the hundreds of exciting upcoming free Levitt concerts across the country. Making a stop at six Levitt locations this summer is the genre-busting, classical strings meets hip-hop duo Black Violin, presented as part of the 2015 Levitt National Tour.

About Levitt Pavilions and the Mortimer & Mimi Levitt Foundation

Levitt Pavilions is a national nonprofit organization that exists to strengthen the social fabric of America. We empower communities to transform neglected public spaces into welcoming destinations where the power of free, live music brings people together and invigorates community life.

Through an innovative partnership with the Mortimer & Mimi Levitt Foundation, a private family foundation, Levitt Pavilions provides funding support, resources and technical expertise to advance the national Levitt program, which collectively serves more than half a million people in 16 cities annually through 400+ free, family-friendly outdoor concerts. During the past decade, more than $18 million in grants has been awarded to support the core Levitt program of creating access to free, live music experiences while transforming public spaces.

Each signature Levitt venue is its own 501(c)(3) Friends of Levitt nonprofit organization, supporting and presenting 50+ free concerts every year. The meaningful impact of the signature Levitt program is sparking its growth, with developing Levitt locations in Denver (opening 2016) and Houston (opening 2017), amongst other cities. The Levitt AMP Music Series is a new annual creative placemaking grant competition serving small to mid-sized towns and cities across America to activate dormant public spaces through free concerts.
