In the chat...

What gets in the way of meaningful and authentic conversations about race, power,
and/or privilege?

Politeness Protocol

Politeness protocol dictates that potentially offensive or uncomfortable topics should be (a) avoided, ignored, and silenced or (b) spoken about in a very light or superficial manner.

Academic Protocol

The academic protocol manifests in both academic and professional environments as the expression of strong and/or intense emotions being discouraged. In these spaces, intellectual inquiry is prioritized, and is characterized by objectivity, detachment, and rational discourse.

Colorblind Protocol

Colorblindness is the belief that race (and/or other identity markers) do not matter, that we should be a “colorblind” society, and that people should be judged on the basis of their internal attributes and not their race, gender, socio-economic status, etc.
